

1792

March 7.

My Dear Sir

This will be delivered to you, by Mr. Geracchi, whom I recommend to your attention.

He goes to New York in pursuit of subscriptions towards a Monument of the American Revolution. You have doubtless heard of the Artiff and his project. He will explain to you more particularly.

I have prepared ~~to~~ him to find difficulties in the present political situation of New York — How far they may really stand in his way he will better ascertain on the spot.

While I warmly wish success to the plan I would not embarrass my friends by urging it to the prejudice of public interests.

Y^rs sincerely
A Hamilton

Richard Harrison Esquire

New York

March 1752
A. Hamilton Esq.

