ALL lawyers are omnivorous readers and acquire information and seek diversion through books.

A glance at the list of famous lawyers and jurists in this pamphlet will show that many of the most honoured men in the legal profession have been members of the Society Library. Such names as JAMES ALEXANDER, Chancellor LIVINGSTON, BENJAMIN NICOLL, ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Chancellor KENT, DEWITT CLINTON, JOHN JAY, EDWARD LIVINGSTON, DAVID DUDLEY FIELD, HAMILTON FISH, W. M. EVARTS, ANDREW H. GREEN, WILLIAM ALLEN BUTLER, J. P. GIRAUD FOSTER, JOHN BIGELOW, STEPHEN P. NASH, SAMUEL J. TILDEN, CHARLES O'CONNOR, JOSEPH H. CHOATE, CHARLES C. BEAMAN; Judges H. R. BEEKMAN, CHARLES P. DALY, CHARLES A. PEABODY, GEORGE M. VAN HOESEN, E. H. LACOMBE, GEORGE C. HOLT, ROBERT C. CORNELL, CHARLES M. HOUGH, GEORGE B. ADAMS, and WILLIAM McADOO, indicate the high character of the membership.

Shares in the Library are perpetual, and descendants of the original shareholders in 1754 use the Library today.

You and your descendants should own shares.

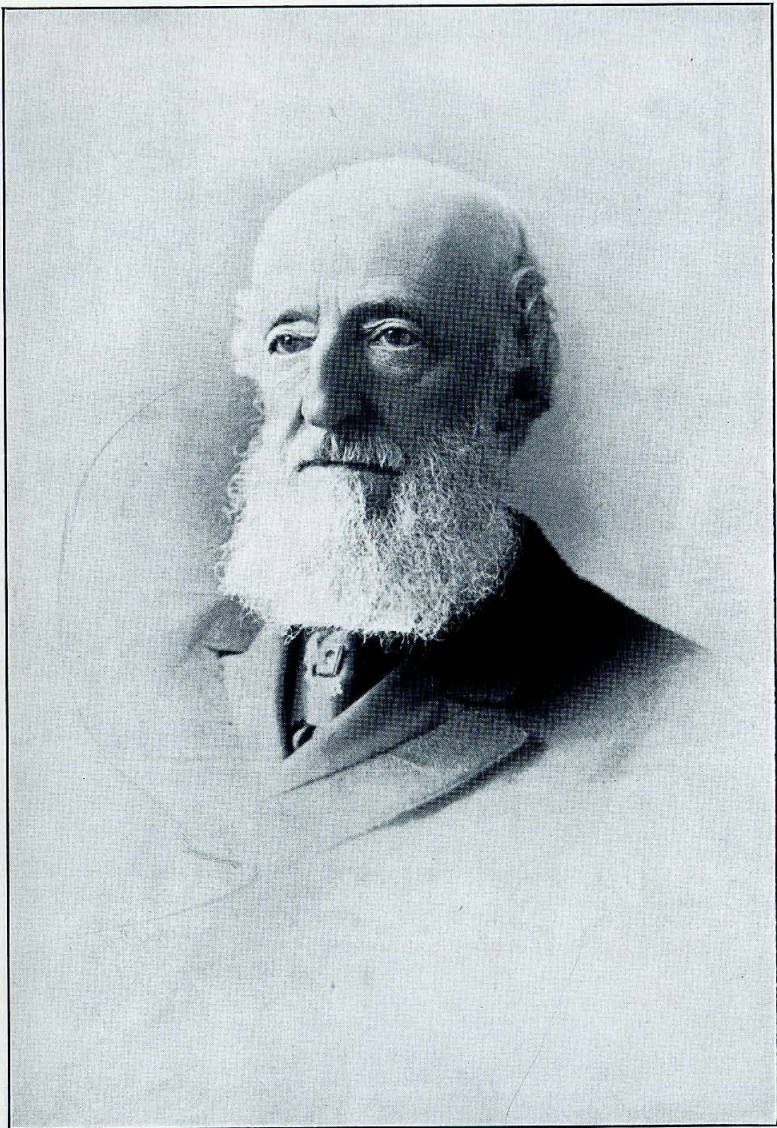

The Society Library delivers books at your residence in New York City and takes them away free of charge and sends them to summer and winter resorts or to your country residence by express at special rates. All you need to do is to telephone or write for what you want.

New books are purchased on the day of publication in all languages and extra copies of popular books to meet the demand.

One share free from annual dues, $150.00. These shares are perpetual and transferable.

A Subscription	}	One year,	$10.00
		Six months,	6.00

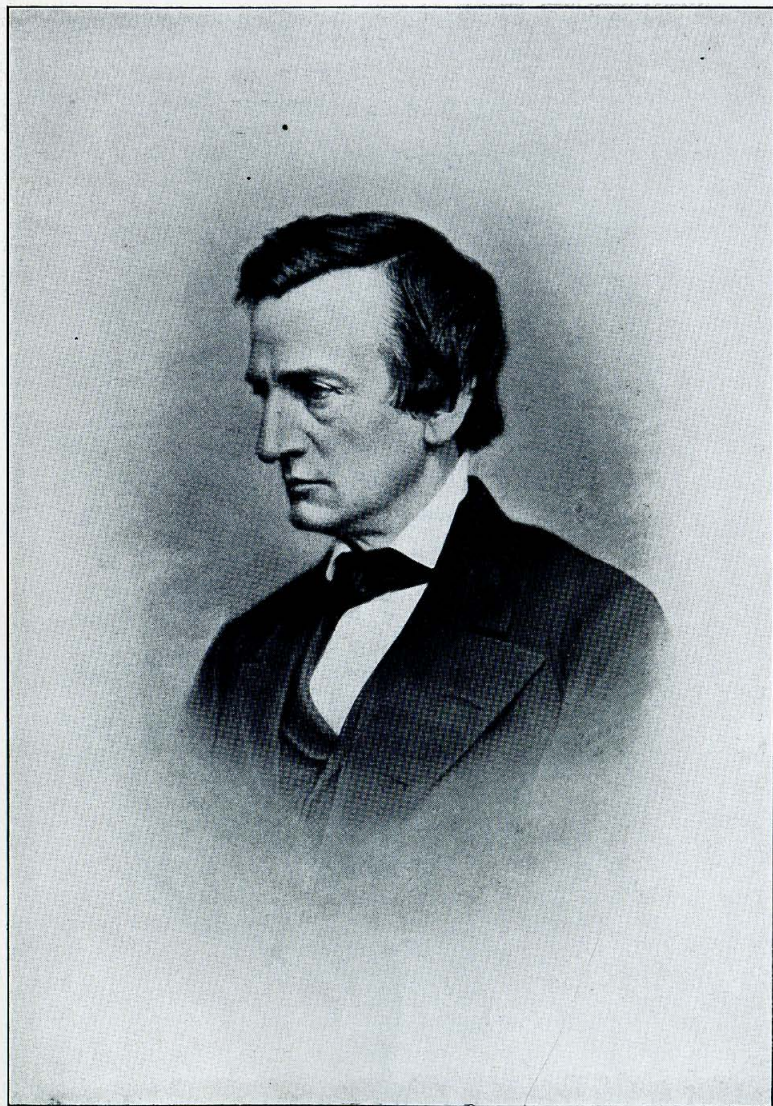

Each subscription entitles the holder to have out four books, and as many subscriptions may be taken as desired.
